SMITH

Lawrence Smith was a resident of Gloucester County, Virginia and in March 1675/76 commanded a fort at the head of the Rappahannock River. In Bacon's Rebellion he sided with Governor Berkeley and after Bacon's death led the Gloucester "trained hands" against Ingram, but they deserted him. He was Surveyor for the County of Gloucester and York in 1686 and in 1691, laid out Yorktown. In 1699, the Governor recorded him as suitable for appointment to the Council. He died in 1700. From his coat of arms, Major Smith appears to have belonged to the Smiths of Totne, County Devon, England.
